

SEA

AND

SKY

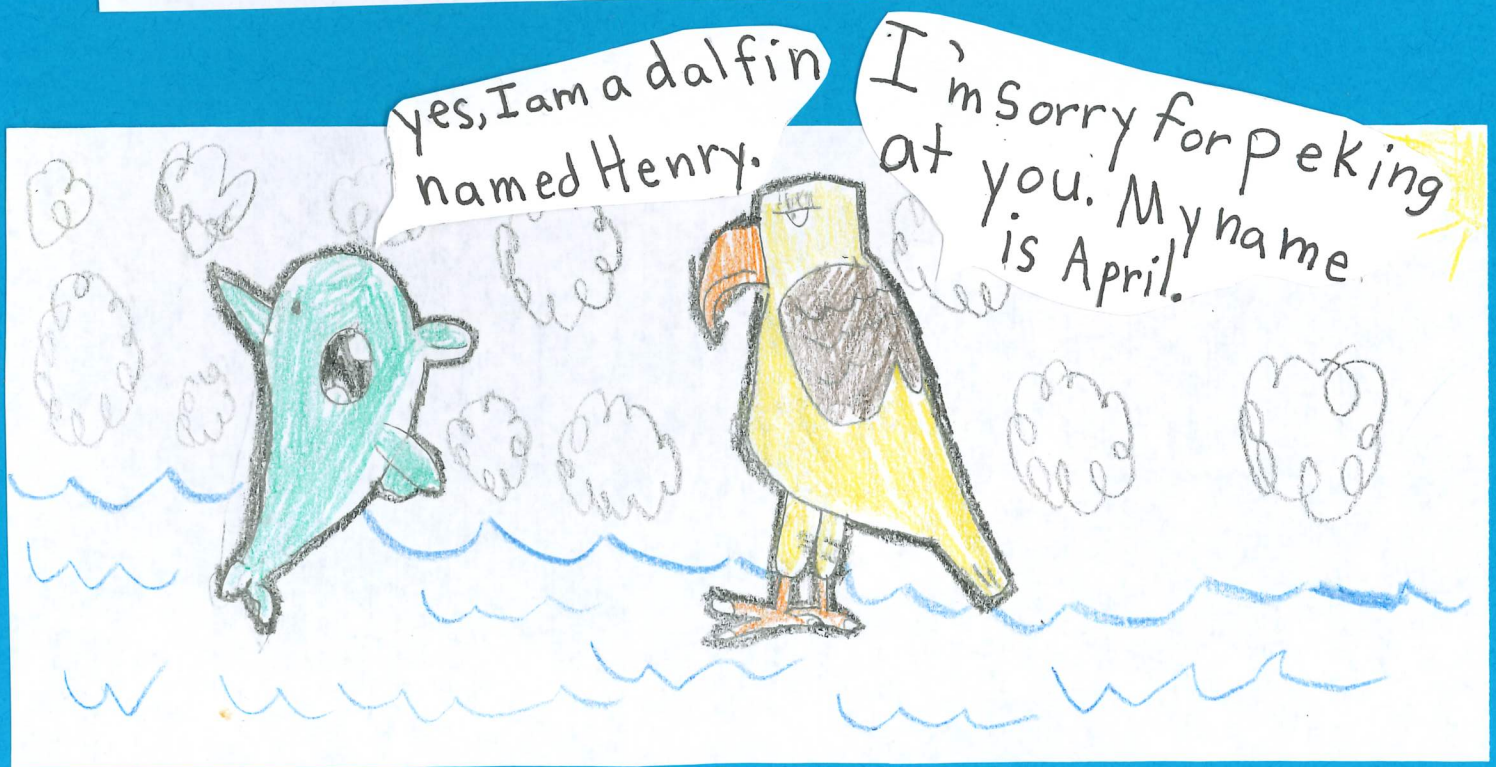

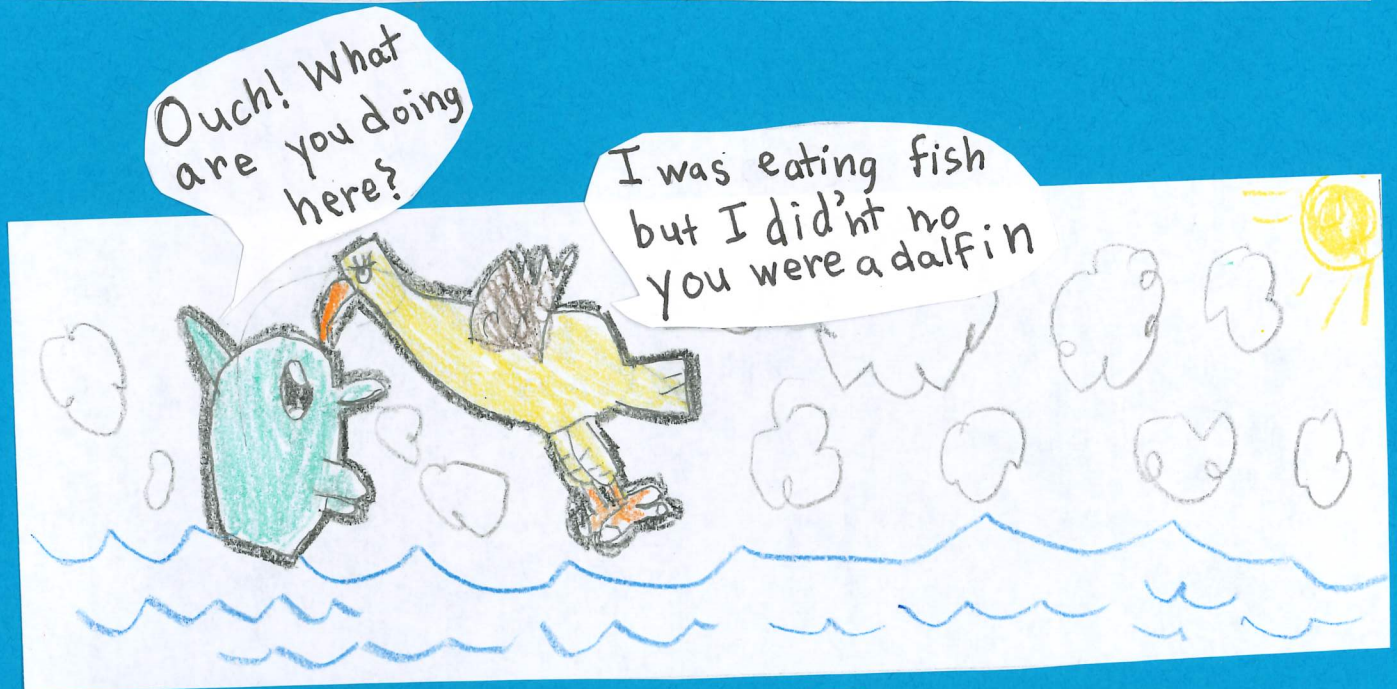

By:

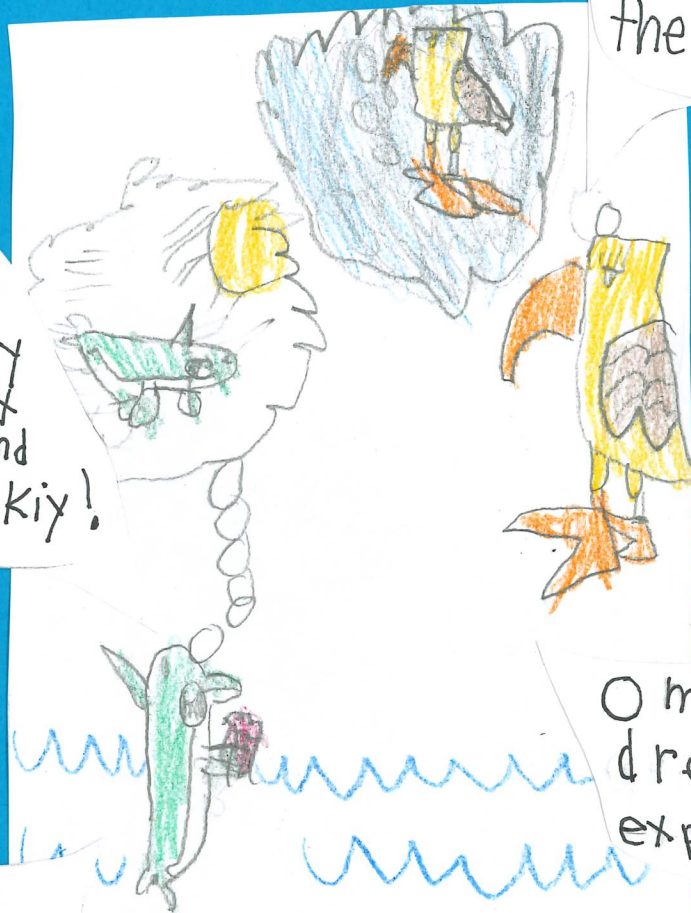

Penelope Bednarek
and Zander Bednarek

Once a Pon a time thar lived an egel named April. April was by the beach eating some fish. Then she saw something in the water. She thout it was a big fish! She swoped down to pek at the fish but it was a dalfin.

I was clecting
Seashells. I riley want to come out of the water and discover the sky!

Wiy are you
dt the skfiss?
You are suposed to be way out in the seq.

O my goodnis! My drem wud beto
explore the seq.

Mabey we can find a way for us to make something so we can go where we want to go.

The egl and the dolfn desidid to work together as a tem to figrout how to wark to make there dremis wark out. So thay first fowd a divers helmit, put April in it, and closd it with tin fol and tape. It warkd! April Went down into the woter and she sow wuhdrfol things. Thare were shels and a trezsher chest.

A wile ago I saw something shiny
 and it loo ked
 like a divers helmit.

Then you shud go swim for it.

How can I pick it up?

Dolfins are smart so I will balins it on my nose.

You did it!
I new dolphins were smart

Now maybe we can find some tin foil and tape
the hole were humans put their heads.

Thanks for helping me!

They figerd out how to make the Egels drem Come tru, now thay had to figer out how to make the dalfins drem come tru too. So April flew to the junkyard and found a hot air balloun and fish tank. Then they took off the baskit and put on the fishtank and filled it with water. Henry got in it.

Henry and April became friends because they were kind and showed each other the world that they wanted to look out from. The End!! Their dreams became

The Bednarek
Cousins

SEA and SKY

By: Penelope & Zander Bednarek
6 pages, 358 words

PAGE 1 - Penelope

Once upon a time there lived an eagle named April. April was by the beach eating some fish. Then she saw something in the water. She thought it was a big fish! She swooped down to peck at the fish but it was a dolphin.

(45 words)

Picture - Eagle pecking the Dolphin

Dolphin: Ouch! What are you doing here?

Eagle: I was eating fish but I didn't know you were a dolphin

(18 words)

Picture - Eagle and Dolphin looking at each other and talking Dolphin: Yes, I am a dolphin named Henry.

Eagle: I'm sorry for pecking at you. My name is April.

(17 words)

PAGE 2 - Zander

Picture - Talking to each other and thinking about what their dreams could look like. Dolphin holding seashells.

Eagle: Why are you at the surface? You are supposed to be way out in the sea.

Dolphin: I was collecting seashells. I really want to come out of the water and discover the sky!

Eagle: Oh my goodness! My dream would be to explore the sea.

Dolphin: Maybe we can find a way for us to make something so we can go where we want to go

(64 words)

PAGE 3 - Zander

The Eagle and the Dolphin decided to work together as a team to figure out how to work to make their dreams work out. So they first found a diver's helmet, put April in it, and closed it with tin foil and tape. It worked! April went down into the water and she saw wonderful things. There were shells and a treasure chest.

(63 words)

Picture - The Dolphin thinking of the helmet.

Dolphin: A while ago I saw something shiny and it looked like a diver's helmet.

Eagle: Then you should go swim for it.

(21 words)

Picture - The Dolphin balancing the helmet on his nose in the sea.

Dolphin: How can I pick it up? Dolphins are smart so I will balance it on my nose.

(17 words)

PAGE 4 - Penelope

Picture - The Eagle talking to the Dolphin with the tape and tin foil.

Eagle: You did it! I knew dolphins were smart.

Dolphin: Now maybe we can find some tin foil and tape the hole where humans put their head.
(25 words)

Picture - The Eagle in the helmet at the bottom of the sea

Eagle: Thanks for helping me
(4 words)

PAGE 5 - Penelope

They figured out how to make the Eagle's dream come true, now they had to figure out how to make the Dolphin's dream come true too. So April flew to the junkyard and found a hot air balloon and fish tank. Then they took off the basket and put on the fish tank and filled it with water. Henry got in it.
(62 words)

Picture - The Eagle with all the junkyard stuff

Eagle: I brought some stuff. It might work!

Dolphin: Let's build it!
(10 words)

Picture - The Dolphin in the hot air balloon up in the sky

Eagle: How is it going?

Dolphin: I can see the world from up here
(12 words)

PAGE 6 - Zander

Henry and April became friends because they were kind and showed each other the world that they wanted to look at. Their dreams became true. The END (27)

Picture - The sunset as the new friends leave each other for the day thinking about their new friendship.

Eagle and Dolphin: (thinking of each other)
(0 words)